

Azadliq Prospekti 83
370007 Baku, Azerbaijan
Phone: ++ (99412) 498 03 35
Fax: ++ (99412) 498 93 12
E-mail: HuseynguliyevMM@state.gov

RELEASE NEWS

THE PUBLIC AFFAIRS SECTION / EMBASSY OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

U.S. Embassy Announces 2005-2006 Fulbright Scholarship Program

June 17, 2004

The United States Embassy in Azerbaijan is pleased to announce the 2005-2006 Fulbright Scholarship program. The Fulbright Scholarship Program is a U.S. Department of State program for senior scholars, researchers, and professors from Azerbaijan to travel to the U.S. to conduct research in their chosen field for a period of three to ten months.

Since independence, Azerbaijan has sent 30 Fulbright Scholars to the U.S. The eligible fields for the Fulbright Scholarship Program are:

- Agriculture
- American History
- American Literature
- American Studies
- Anthropology
- Archaeology
- Architecture
- Art
- Biological Sciences
- Business Administration
- Chemistry
- Communications
- History (non-U.S.)
- Information Sciences
- Journalism
- Language/Literature
- Law
- Library Science
- Linguistics
- Mathematic
- Music
- Philosophy
- Physics/Astronomy
- Political Science

- Creative Writing
- Dance
- Economics
- Education
- Environmental Sciences
- Film Studies
- Geography
- Geology
- Public Administration
- Public Health
- Religious Studies
- Sociology
- Social Work
- TEFL/Applied Linguistics
- Theater
- Urban Planning

For the application and information, please visit the U.S. Embassy website:
(http://www.usembassybaku.org/usis/culture/Visiting_App_2005.doc). For inquiries, please email: BakuEducation@state.gov

Applications will be accepted during business hours at the U.S. Embassy, 83 Azadlig Prospekti, 370007, Baku until the deadline Friday, November 19 at 5pm.